

THE FRIENDS OF THE HOUSEHOLD CAVALRY MUSEUM

Please support your Windsor-based and London-based Regiment

We salute our Heroes in today's British Armed Forces, many of whom come from your local Regiment based in the Royal Borough of Windsor. The Household Cavalry are part of Windsor's heritage, having been stationed at their spiritual home, Combermere Barracks since the early 1800s.

Would YOU like to become a

FRIEND OF THE HOUSEHOLD CAVALRY MUSEUM?

The Household Cavalry Regiment comprises the two Senior Regiments of today's Modern Army – The Life Guards, and The Blues And Royals.

The Mounted (Ceremonial) Regiment is based at Hyde Park Barracks, Knightsbridge, London and the Armoured Reconnaissance Regiment is stationed at Combermere Barracks, Windsor, and has recently returned from Helmand Province in Afghanistan.

The Household Cavalry (Museum)

The Household Cavalry Museum invites you to become a Friend of the Household Cavalry Regiment, which has been in existence since 1660, and they have made it easy for you to join.

If you do decide to support us, you will be entitled to:

1. Free access (by appointment) to the Household Cavalry Museums, one of which is at Horse Guards Parade, and the other at Combermere Barracks, Windsor.
2. Two newsletters per year to keep you informed about the Regiment.
3. Tours (by appointment) for both the Mounted Regiment at Hyde Park Barracks, Knightsbridge, in London, and the Armoured Reconnaissance Regiment at Combermere Barracks, in Windsor (at the discretion of the Regiment).
4. An annual dinner to be held at a venue in Windsor (subject to numbers).

What will it cost to join?

Single Adult £15 per year
Couple (Two Adults) £20 per year
Family (Including Children up to the age of 5) £25 per year

On the form below, please clearly indicate with a "X" which level you are joining, and print your details clearly and legibly. If you are a UK tax-payer, you may wish to complete a Gift Aid Form, which will print out along with this form.
